

The Monthly Observations

for June 2020

Welcome to Psychic & Energy Work's Observations for this month. They profile this month's energetic rhythms and connect to the forecast for this year. They seek to help you process and learn about energetic life. Implicit in this is your spiritual journey and intuitive practices. Insights about collective rhythms can be useful at any time! They help us reconnect to vibes that feed life in ways that enhance "real world" outcomes.

Psychic & Energy Work is offering limited face-to-face consultations at this time. We can work together at a distance via phone, email or video. It's just as effective as face-to-face work, perhaps more. To make a booking, please phone or sms (I only log on to emails Monday to Friday mornings). I will make face-to-face sessions more available as things ease. Thanks for your support. Stay safe.

Psychic & Energy Work's YouTube channel was launched in April. You can view it here or by clicking on the image above. You can also see what I have posted on my new Videos page (in the menu). What is a reading? What can it be? – let alone all the other forms of energy work. I also posted a couple of videos about COVID-19 in light of 2020's chart.

THE NUMBERS FOR "JUNE"

Every month brings its own dynamics which interact with the year's chart. Outlined below are my Observations about this "June" given its main numbers.

This Month's Profile

	each year	in 2020
Birth Number - what we're here to be/become & exemplify again	6	2026/1
M.O. - how we're likely to arrive at that point	14/5	93/3
Reality Number - the spiritual result(s) of doing such things	20/2	2119/4

“June 2020”'s numerological tally....

Combined with the year's profile, this month offers the following count. Examining a chart from this angle can help explain things. It doesn't, in itself, signal “good” or “bad” (life usually delivers a mix). Yet what we can find initially jarring often leads to better states. A count like this can help people make sense of things. When a number presents three or more times, its energetic and spiritual themes (and lessons!) increase.

The tally for this month is:

Number	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Frequency	5	4	9	2	3	1	2	2	-	5

Let's have a closer look at this.....

“June”'s birth numbers are “6” and “2026/4”

teaching us more about balance, health and self-ness

The birth number tells us what we're going to learn and, hopefully, choose to consciously channel more. It denotes the states we will end up representing day-to-day. Being a spiritual influencer doesn't always need overt gestures. “6”, this “June”, seeks “real me” as important – it always is; balance is key. We do not get “real” unless we “go naked” – i.e. lose costumes, delusions, scripts. “Six” can also flag a time when more healing vibes or lessons play through life. That can mean the need to process illness or place more value upon quality down-time. Here, of course, life helps selves confirm whether things are as good as can be. It's often through moments of “what is not” that we begin to choose and act more consciously.

“6” also flags love as a rhythm; that only flows (lasts) when we're real, too! Numbers always hint at the spiritual end states we're due to encounter and learn to breed. Self often grows through the veil of “what's not” so “June” could promote self-ish-ness. Don't be surprised if love-less-ness presents in ways that dare you to choose again. “6”, like all plants, needs our attention; peace ain't sustained unless we nurture it. Nirvana only lasts for as long as self elects to resonate with it. That means making choices before we respond; deciding how to live before heading outside. All of these lessons are a part of “2020” so don't be surprised if “June” helps you sync into peace more than you have been.

This month's specific birth number also carries a “6”. You may, therefore, find this month helping you sense, heal and nurture to the next degree. “6” equals “feel” – balance or chaos; it's a zone that flows best with settled mind. This is worth noting given how thoughts and feelings shape our manifesting! “2026” says that sharing, fitting, placement (“2”); spirituality and stillness (“0”); and “6” dynamics might guide people towards better self-full-ness spiritually. “1” is the end point - adulthood, example, independence, integrity. Such vibrations always matter but could play out more loudly this month. This suggests a time that will boost authentic being, again, somehow.

The master number, “10/1”, subtly presents in this month's specific birth number. “10” can enhance one's sense of isolation, uniqueness, difference – states which can feel really jarring. “Stand as you are irrespective of others”. “Mind your own business – that's all you can affect”. Isms like this might play out for, around or because of you this month. We're all here as trains, not ivies which twirl round things, strangling life's flow. The more you focus upon your own journey, in integrity, the more good you'll grow. Looking left and right – overcasting sideways – can see self tied up in knots. We can all do this, reasonably often, yet it remains a spiritual block. “10/1” helps people release encumbrance; focus more upon their own paths. Everything is linked – honing your focus in this way needn't trigger “bad” stuff. Anchoring in universal rhythms helps our soul journey manifest well. We each have our own unique set of runners so do what you can to get on with yours.

So, eldership could be a key outcome this month; a state you might need to channel more. Be your example; don't live outside models; you really CAN do it, however that comes. Know yourself while grounding in pure thought (this is where we tend to channel our best "me"). By choosing to partner with divine guidance first, we help manifest best realities. "10/1" can want self as individual, standing up for its values and stating its case. It's often a time for walking our talk; honouring what our gut feel says. That needn't require overt gestures; "1" just asks self to be. "June" might help you emerge more as yourself, ready to exist.

This month's M.O.s are "14/5" and "93/3" you might distil more about bending, stretching, creating

"14" carries a "1", too, so my Observations above apply here as well. "4" denotes plans, mindsets and models firming up or being reviewed. "4" is self's platform; the stance from which we offer; any system we help grow. It can represent an audit of frameworks; time for ensuring they're the best. Through inner growth, affirmation, rebirth ("1") and some tightening up in our approaches ("4"), we're likely to embrace – a little more deeply - whatever life calls us to. "5" signals change, tolerance, forgiveness, endurance, patience (those sorts of dynamics). It's "bend and stretch because it is good for you, life, everyone/thing else". "Five" can often seem unforgiving when it presents, at first. It seeks real change; core-level action and shifts which help long-term life thrive. It can also hint at newness emerging - surprises OR states we have sensed for a while.

"5" also flags the intrepid explorer heading into unknown fields. It's a time that helps people see that they can (and, therefore, a zone which releases pessimism). "93/3", "June"s specific M.O., is likely to add to these rhythms. "9" wants closure – I say that often! "3" helps us audit what we entertain. "Three" denotes creating, producing, how we all contribute to things. "What are you putting up with?" is a potent "3" question. It can also highlight how we express stuff, gesture, speak, exchange, do. What is self's role in co-creating whatever we witness and live through? This month might ask us all to consider these sorts of things (and learn from them). Through this, we'll breed more soul-full "6" and "2026" rhythms. Can you sense how these dynamics might usher you to better, real world harmony? "6" is a time that likes to guide people even they feel out of sync with things.

By dealing with events as we need to ("9") and saying and doing spiritually ("3") – or not! – this "June" is going to lead us towards pretty core (important) realisations. "3" represents self receiving insights, ; coming to "see" things as they are. It finds intuitive guidance getting louder; more obvious somehow. It can see dreams becoming active (they often boost consciousness). Many can dismiss dreaming as fantasy when they often helps people process. As mind quiets down, we open up into psychic, unspoken dialogues. "June 2020" really could help you learn a few things as a result.

"3" also flags expression - dialogues with self, the universe, invisible and other beings. Through expression – balanced or egoic – ("3") and sorting through whatever life sends ("9"), you might find yourself getting in touch with and respecting spiritual needs a little more. All numbers speak of divine and egoic levels of creation coming together, becoming merged. Any part of existence can heighten in ways that help us grow as beings who are totally dependent upon universal (divine) will and flow. Through these rhythms this month, life's due to help us embrace and propagate peace ("6"). That vibe has to flow in self first before it can outwardly manifest.

clearings, healings & meditations over the phone

... not to mention readings and other forms of energy work. Sometimes, life presents in ways that stun us – often just as we need to stay grounded. Via WhatsApp, Skype, phone, video or email, I tune into what's been happening to help you understand and clear it. Sessions are recorded so that you can revisit the guidance you're given. “June 2020”s reality numbers are “20/2” and “2119/4”

suggesting life will promote better sharing, fit and frameworks

“2” speaks of sharing; existing fairly in amongst a world of others. We do that all the time yet high “2” can heighten the need to do this soul-fully. “2” magnifies relative positions (which is where and how people often “get” things). “1” highlights self; “2”, one’s induction into co-existing well – i.e. moving about with minimal damage on psychic, emotional, physical or mental levels. High repetition of “2” often helps selves finetune their stances and how they be. All numbers signal what we ‘ll learn directly as we get out and mingle. They also denote what we’ll deduce as we observe life/others in action. We learn both ways so this “June” might help you to choose more of “this” over “that”.

Through the dance of “2”, life often guides us to step more considerably than we had been. “20”, you’ll note, repeats this year’s birth number (“2020”). This suggests this “June” will unfold as another powerful, learning zone. When numbers repeat, the lessons life brings tend to get deeper, stronger somehow. “0” restates that all of life emerges out of blank space. Egoic self, waking adults, can find lots of “zero”s unsettling. This is because we all get used to how life behaves day-to-day. “Good” or “bad”, nought can deliver a quietening in flow, downturns, leaner times. Many people around the world are having to deal with this right now. Less cash or action often manifests when a high “0” phase unfolds. A high “zero” count can also see people struggling with a lack of clear information. Even this can result in less certainty and confidence. In sum, this number represents “nothing” in all the ways it can manifest. It also denotes the universe, intuitive guidance and the non-negotiable need to nurture spiritual connection.

So? “0” can be a time that helps us integrate with spirituality. It tends to target physical conditions so as to breed soul-full anchoring. As a zone, it can marshal individuals into receiving as a stance. It helps us prepare for what is coming and, within this, shows us how to occupy space. Loud loss or lack can see folk stressing - that is human, egoic too. That part of self can forget to connect well because it is so tangibly and mentally skewed.

Hence, “0” visits to help people stand back from all the action they’re used to (and expecting). Here, it plays out as a potent lesson in who/what really drives creation. It re-establishes Source as Source, and human as a co-creator in things. Inherent in this is a strengthening in our ability to witness, wait, breathe. High “0” counts can be jarring when we have been on a roll. A sudden shift in “fortune” can be upsetting yet “zero” simply marks a reboot somehow. It’s the very beginning of a whole new chapter, one which egoic self hasn’t envisaged. This is why it can be so jarring – “I” didn’t agree on/expect “this”! Yet, “0” is the second just before new/more wholesome stuff rolls in. Implicit in this is the dare to not fill space with pessimistic mantras and fear. Easy to write; a challenge whenever loud “0” comes around. Yet, as soon as self remembers to step back and let life get to work, flow begins somehow. Through such rhythms, “June 2020” could help us relate and share better again – not only with other humans but also with Source, nature, air.

It seems as if this month might nudge us to dust off and strengthen spiritually. Your frame of reference really matters; what you link into affects all things. Via such wavelengths, you may end up learning how to be soul better again. This month’s specific reality number, “2119/4”, contains numbers profiled above. It asks for more compassionate being and the lower “1” count could add to this. By relating well – as best we can – (“2”); being true to self while sharing space (“1”); and addressing whatever requires our attention now (“9”), we’ll prepare the way ahead truer, fairer, more solid somehow (“4”). “Four” is the launch pad; time for reviewing; the moment before we will take off. It helps us audit what we have planned; whether it will launch the perfect rocket. It’s the base from which everything blooms; our soul-full, powerful diving board. This year’s a “4” year so don’t be surprised if this month reveals more about such things. “Four” zones can want us tightening viewpoints so as to unfold safe, sure. It wants selves building the best on all levels: thought, feeling, vibe, results. This suggests that this month could reveal more about creating, being, in the now – i.e. how one’s sense of self shapes outcomes. COVID-19 is helping lives rebirth in powerful, lasting, wholistic ways. Can you sense how this “June” might help you distil more about your options? Choice and choosing are potent dynamics; now is the time to review stances. Whenever we act with good intentions, the universe tends to offer that as reflection.

So? Trust your judgment AND your uniqueness; test where you've pegged the limits of life. Stretch, grow, test, try; follow your gut; live your path fully. One never ever knows (or creates) "success" unless s/he dares to pioneer. All in all, another potent month that wants us all being all we can be. This "June" should help people fathom when, where and how to get "there". The more we let Source take up space with us – share and exchange in intuitive ways – the more we tend to be protected and guided in all we do. There are no guarantees; no path is ever as straight as it seems. Five "9"s, this month, signal closure that we notice and gain from. Five "0"s flag the need to continue caring for what is soul. Nine "2"s could trigger lessons in other; its value and role; how to share space. Three "4"s could hone our awareness of which recipes (and paths) suit us best. All of this suggests better states of working, flowing, receiving, life. Two "6"s and two "7"s should help us assimilate with (process) these dynamics. Lower "5" and "8" flag less spin which always helps us see and deduce. All in all, a productive month – one which, I hope, helps you flourish!

What about your chart?

We each have a specific numerological profile that stems from our date of birth, full birth name and last birthday. I've outlined the collective rhythms for this month but have not talked about your personal chart. Readings that merge numbers with intuitive downloads can help you transition through all sorts of things. They're all about soul - linking to and channelling it more - and what can occur when we do this. Life, after all, ain't only a physical reality.
