"OCTOBER" S NUMBERS

Every month brings its own dynamics which interact with the year's chart. Outlined below are the main numbers followed by my Observations.

This Month's Chart

	each year	in 2021
Birth Number - what we're here to be/become & exemplify again	10/1	2031/6
M.O. - how we're likely to arrive at that point	33/6	128/2
Reality Number - the spiritual result(s) of doing such things	43/7	2159/8

"October 2021" s numerological tally....

Combined with the year's numerological profile, this month produces the following count. Examining a chart from this angle can help us understand what's going on. It doesn't, in itself, signal "good" or "bad" (life often delivers a mix). What we can find initially jarring comes to promote better existence. A count like this can help us process and make sense of things. When a number presents three or more times, its energetic and spiritual themes (and lessons!) increase.

The tally for this month is:

Number	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Frequency	3	9	7	4	1	4	2	1	2	2

Let's look closer at this.....

“October”'s birth numbers are “10/1” and “2031/6”

backing your horse is back on the cards

Nine “1”s, this month, want horses backed; self knowing self more palpably. It takes time for most of us to constantly honour what we sense as gut feel. Confidence is inherent in this; rightness is a feeling not just a thought. The more we learn to listen to higher self, the more exactly we discern. “1” is a time for uniqueness, difference, to stand and be counted healthily. We're all odd as well as having sameness. “1” phases want us knowing and celebrating this. It can bring moments that feel isolated, when “I'm” the only one viewing, knowing, sensing “this”. Here, we can feel out of place because we seem alone in our experience. “1” comes to forge “I” as boundary setter; it develops our ear for our “inner” guide. There's always a value in learning such things. They help us hold lines that are respectful. We are all unique. With that, comes advantage. Don't be surprised if you learn more re this in “October”.

As social beings, we can like a bit of sameness. It's not always fun standing out. Yet, “1” restates that there is no bad stance (assuming we're in integrity). Chapters that bear “10/1” and “6” want us accepting every single aspect. That doesn't mean agree with “it” all. Sooner or later, difference becomes sameness. Lack of understanding is clearer when the time comes to see things. We're all very odd from certain angles. Uniqueness is how every atom makes a value-added difference.

So, that is “1”. “0” boosts these rhythms given its role with space. “10/1” can feel alone at times – through this, life leads us to new perspectives. When we're too busy or in amongst group, we don't always sense the best, next, core move. “1” is the start of a new pathway – all from scratch or just a section. Either way, it highlights how to make room for more of what is needed. As the first stage in a new nine-stage cycle, it inducts self into new ways of sensing and being. It can slow us down from “just” steaming ahead which, in hindsight, often proves as favour. The universe is totally future-focused. What we think, feel, do now shapes what unfolds next.

Life sometimes flows in mysterious ways – only to get self moving “up”. There is no need to lose faith when life starts to block or frustrate. They're big words yet, through such dynamics, life helps us into conscious “me” more. “10/1” helps people know themselves better; with that, how to authentically perform. Insights like this usually guide us in the future practically. “2031” reduces to “6” which links with “1” incredibly. “6” flags balance and, hence, a time to get more in touch with authentic “I”. In you or other, it's all about promoting love, teaching, service, care. Chapters that carry “6” as birth number want more support flowing through things. They can, in themselves, unfold gentler even if challenge exists.

“6” in a “5”-heavy year can offer time-out. It can feel as if the padding is back; self's not so exposed or abandoned in things. If nothing else, guidance comes stronger and - with this - bigger picture (more realistic) views. That can be thought but it's also felt. “10/1” also does such things. “1” and

“6” want peace and affirmation enduring as states, witnessed and beamed. This “October” could steer you to what’s right, for you, solidly. It’s likely to call for justice and acceptance; mutually respectful adulthood. Binary views are always egoic. Remembering this in action can be a great help. There is always more than black v white. “1” accepts variation; every stance is value-add. It’s only when we’re too much in model, self or mind that imbalance breeds.

This month's M.O.s are “33/6” and “128/2”

expression has multiple aspects in truth

Both of this month's M.O.s are master numbers. How we learn this month (and stretch) might be potent. Through these rhythms, the birth numbers birth. What we end up doing is shaped by how we process. “3” appears in “2031/6”; expression and creating, this month, are key. Communication is much more than verbal; it's also gestured and intuitive. Thoughts and feelings are a part of the mix, be they let out or held inside. Mind and gut-feel form what we offer. This month could help us process more and receive amazing insights. Months with three master numbers can be powerful. Within this, comes intuitive moments – some invited; others just lob.

The universe is constantly trying to guide us to the “there” (and future) we're already linked to. Months like this can offer new prisms through which to view. With this, can birth amazing perspectives which, somehow, feel more wholistic. “33/6” can flag that flow matters - more than usual – in anything. Life always invites us to learn more. Through this, awareness and individuals grow. Receiving, intuiting, gut feel counts with “3” also flagging production. Can you sense, here, how life wants perfection in taking in and giving out? “3”-heavy zones can foster health as a challenge or end result. “3”, twice over, could lead us all into more “6” – what feels right at self's core. Spiritually, that is always a place where “you”, “me” and “them” long-term prosper.

Harmony births out of “3” moments – inside, outside, in between. “3” helps people find their real purpose, face and place in things. Numbers always denote what we'll grow next – or miss - by doing stuff. “128” adds down through “11” which likes to re-present the whole, big picture. This vibe wants actualisation. That comes from knowing self well. This “October” is a time to discover “I” – in you, me and others; learning how to interact; as well as gleaning more about how to succeed. “Success” is the state where every cell buzzes with joy, precision, energy. It's not just a zone for money and objects. Authentic “I” matters in everything. Meaning, this month, is due for a boost; getting real wherever we need to. “2” is a time for learning how to co-exist. “October” might lead you into stances more in sync.

We don't own much and most of that's "internal". Such is the nature of a soul's path. These things said, "11" is truth; a time that wants us "seeing" more. That can be wonderful, delightful; sometimes, however, it can feel off. Clarity wants to boom when "10/1", "33/6" and "128/2" step forward. This year is "5" and "128" ("11") resonates strongly with this. Both vibrations can trigger sudden, unexpected shifts. They nudge selves out of tunnel vision, back into fullness over again. They, therefore, introduce more balance and, often, better-rounded perspectives. They're grounding, clearing, defining numbers that come to dissolve complexity. Don't be surprised if this "October" helps you feel more affirmed and affirming.

"6" is a healer of event, mind and body. It flags how life wants balance and truth. Health can blossom as topic or crisis. "33" flags expression as a healer. Releasing what's felt often helps shift stuff. This month might nudge you to journal, exercise, meditate, speak "it" some more. Letting go is a potent curer and, as we release, we often sense more. Everything starts on the energetic level. Where can you surrender all that you grip? Embracing the need to heal and rebalance helps all sorts of stuckness shift.

Test the above. You're a physical being with an energetic core to nurture. You don't need to act like a container. Everything moves if we let it. It is only through trying that newness starts. Life is flow. Focus fosters perfection. What we produce is invisible pre-birth. Everything starts at a place of awareness. We're here to actualise all we are able. Connect, first, with life – divine energies. "Just" doing this can heal and grow great things. Always explore. Never blindly believe.

"October" brings reality numbers of "43/7" and "2159/8"

wisdom rebirthed; clearer path and purpose

"43/7" signals eyes will open up (which featured last month, too). These three digits are all mind-enhancers.... "3" says "realise"; "4" grows awareness; "7", wisdom. The latter vibe flags practical knowing; it's precision of sight; sure of how life works. "7" wants doubt and uncertainty leaving (being the place of wholistic "I know"). Here, there is no egoic self; it's a matter of fact that's ready to move. Through such rhythms, we let go of doubt and "just do it". "7" is the move from student to master; no more hesitation. Working with "8" as reality number, it speaks of enhancements to end results. "7" is "I know"; "8", perfection of manifesting - precision of delivery and mindset. Through this, we start kicking goals we hold dear. This month wants movement, healing, learning that goes on to breed healthy and inclusive futures.

"7" also flags teaching; sharing wisdom. It can denote student and/or teacher. Both guide both when we do them well. "7" is "learn. "8", cook as only you can cook things. It's no longer time for cast-molded masses. The 2020's seek uniqueness. We are all emitters who open or reduce doors. "7" is intuitively practical wisdom; "8", abundance in every form. These universal end points could birth more this month as states and methods we'll learn more about by the 31st. More clarity is due somehow - mental, physical; affirmed, offered. Coming in the last calendar quarter - of a "5" year - this augers well. What better start than one that's well-focused and ready to get on next year? This month could help "2022" in a number of ways - maybe in ways that are hard to see for some. Everything is geared to health, harmony, resolution. Egoic self doesn't tend to know this but that's why it's key. Don't be surprised if this month promotes resolution around or in you. Letting go is how we get ready to receive anew.

Out of "8", lastly, clarity pops - self sensing more of what it's really here for. "7" supports that nicely, as does "10/1", "128/2", "33/6". This month seeks gain in ways we can use; insights that help you place whatever you need to. Four "5"s and two "9"s will steer us towards newness in any sphere. Continue stepping with eyes open to glean, intuit, all you can. This month comes to educate and inform so as to guide people into better placement. Even here, knowing self matters as a constantly shifting state. Being well-grounded and -understood requires us to breathe to process what's uncertain. The universe always has your back even when little light seems to shine through. The more you know this, the greater the help you and all else tends to receive.

What about your chart?

We each have a specific numerological profile that stems from our date of birth, full birth name and last birthday. I've outlined the collective rhythms for this month but have not talked about your personal chart. Readings that merge numbers with intuitive downloads can help you transition through all sorts of things. They're all about soul - linking to and channelling it more - and what can occur when we do this.
