

The Monthly Observations

for March 2022

Welcome to Psychic & Energy Work's Observations for "March 2022". The narrative below profiles this month through spiritual, energetic and number-helped filters. It can be useful reading it together with the forecast for this year. It aims to help you learn about and work with dynamics true to self. Implicit in this is intuition; how you're processing invisible stuff. Insights about the collective chart can really help us make sense of things. No matter our personal year or placement, what happens outside affects self as well.

Recapping last month...

Before we explore this month's dynamics, let's review "February". Did you find it gentler; somehow easier than "Jan"? You're not alone if your answer is yes. It challenged at times but still seemed more supportive. Busyness returned as a rhythm. Did your schedules pull, push or blow out? The chart contained five "8"s which can make life more full-on. "8" mentors selves about success, helping them sense what it means on a personal level. For some, it's about vocation or dollars; for others, wellbeing. It comes to connect people with model – not the generic version; the one that's in your DNA. Through this, we're helped into best fit in all spheres. If events helped you streamline or get in touch with such themes, there's no surprise.

Last month, therefore, may have felt lighter (even if tension surfaced). It wanted us delving into planning; reviewing goals perhaps. Awareness was another focus; coming to understand life more – not only as a place to exist in but also as a communicative being. Sometimes, we can see our day as just landscape; something to paint on, not so much hear. Life and Source eternally guide self but we don't always sense this. "February" wanted selves reconnecting; listening to gut feel more. Learning from life so as to launch well is very much an "8" dynamic.

"MARCH'S NUMBERS

Every month brings its own dynamics which interact with the year's chart. Outlined below are the key numbers followed by my Observations.

This Month's Chart

	each year	in 2022
Birth Number - what we're here to be/become & exemplify again	3	2025/9
M.O. - how we're likely to arrive at that point	25/7	117/9
Reality Number - the spiritual result(s) of doing such things	28/1	2142/9

"March 2022's numerological tally....

Combined with the year's numerological profile, this month produces the following count. Examining a chart from this angle helps us understand what's going on. It doesn't, in itself, signal "good" or "bad" (life often delivers a mix). What we find initially jarring comes to promote better states of being. A count like this can help us make sense of what we need to. When a number presents three or more times, its energetic and spiritual themes (and lessons!) increase.

The tally for this month is:

Number	0	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Frequency	2	6	12	1	2	2	1	2	2	4

Let's look at what this might mean for your world.....

"March's birth numbers are "3" and "2025/9" realising, change and closure are due

Looking above, we've a relatively quiet chart this month. In the past few years, on a monthly basis, more numbers have repeated at least three times. This suggests this month will be smoother in some respects. It could also breed more helpful focus on one or two areas. Issues, of course, still feature. Egoic self needs to own, be, have more. So does soul but it approaches progression from very different standpoints. The focus this month is "2", "1" and "9" – relating well (spiritually!), positioning, self-awareness and knowledge, sorting things out, leadership. These vibes will generate enough of a task list. This month's birth numbers want people to process better again through good and hard times. "2" can see self finding its best place; "1", standing tall; "9", sorting through things constructively.

No vibe needs to be read as only ever promoting negativity. "3" helps folk see how they create and fulfil destiny. It also denotes a time when self realises; becomes clearer about stuff. "3" flags "flow" and how we, as beings, block, promote, heal and love that. It guides us to better interact with life. In this sense, it's "receive"; making room for new. Sorta like trucks, trains and autos, we're best filling first if we want to make the distance. So? "3" can reveal more about how we contribute to, affect and attract things. It's all about flow and helping self sense its place as receiver then giver, maker and do'er.

"2025" presents "202" as an ongoing theme. Relating, positioning, learning through comparing always help self make sense of things. "202" can be dosey-do'ey, flagging people then space then people again. It hints at the need for space to process so as to mingle continually well. It plays through until year "2100" to help us get the balance right. Quality time out is so important; it gains us space to reflect, plan, process. "202" isn't a new vibe – it's been here since "2019" finished. Yet, it continues to show us the importance of spiritual connection. Where can you sense the need for more dialogue and healing from the universe to keep battery charged? "5", in the mix, will promote such things (it likes to stretch and nudge us forth). Last year carried "5"s (explaining why it pushed and pulled as it did). This vibe wants people rolling with life, knowing they'll get through fog (with faith) successfully. From this angle, it prompts self to breathe to process challenge and doubt. We're still divesting of "2021"; birthing into possibility.

If you've been working through flatness or heaviness, you're not alone. For all that's typed above, "5" wants people pioneering. It wants to reveal new ways to fullness, better somehow, spiritually whole(-r). Seeking this, it often stretches scopes in ways we don't sign up for. Yet life always steers self to potential. We don't always remember that. "5" can seek forgiveness; flexibility. It wants self releasing from limits and hurts. Here, too, is where "5" seeks pioneering; self opening mind to link to future; meeting and greeting flow with open arms (not resistance or pessimism). Stretching doesn't always feel so pleasant. We all tend to love our comfort zones. "5" comes to nudge us into great more-ness; real-life outcomes we celebrate later on. It's easy to stay adhered to moorings. With that, we help opportunity pass. We don't have to push all the time – not at all – but "5" leads self to newer, really lived, whole life.

"9" is this month's specific birth number and appears three times in the chart. This number wants compassion and caring; old patterns ended for long-term gain. Like all digits, it tends to reveal more than self imagines at start of cycle. For all we can rejoice about the news of fresh starts, "9" likes to bring more again. That needn't read ominously. Closure can be great; empowerment stems from release. There are many reasons to celebrate this month, including the chance to complete things. You might reach key summits and start to slipstream as days unfold. "9" clears space and, by so doing, makes room for new things. It's how we evolve; move into ready for next, clear, true, aware. Don't be surprised if this month helps you rebalance stances and energies.

This month's birth numbers are passive which could soften the weight of twelve "2"s. Passive vibes help people witness, rest up, process, glean. That's handy as a counter to "2" which targets how we relate. This number can see a heightening in responsiveness. We're seeing this now globally, yes? Where is it happening in your world? "2" mentors self about how to spiritually mingle to the next level. Things like agendas can get loud(-er) when it features. All numbers flag what life's going to show us about self as a vibe that is wider than the individual. Here is where this month's "3" and "9" birth numbers could speed us up by slowing us down. That, of course, is needed in some places. Life flows best in zones which are calm. "2" is where we learn to dance and share space to the next level. "March '22" could help you sort your internal and/or public position(s). That, again, needn't mean bad times. This month could trigger heaps of value-add. Remember, it wants self realising. Use breath to slow down to wholistically speed up.

My Clearing Cards® help you connect

Life flows best when we let go of egoic self. Mind can pull us off-track at times. Taking time to reboot makes a difference.

Everything's linked and explained, assuming we give that the chance to occur. My Clearing Cards® carry two levels of message. Either or both can help you shift and intuit more. To purchase or read more, go through to my Shop.

This month delivers M.O.s of "25/7" and "117/9"

head stuff will nudge us to new wisdom

Coming along with the birth numbers, this month, both M.O.s offer "7". This marks a time to learn and deduce; get practically wiser about things. "7" shows us how life works with/for us as a personalised rhythm. In doing this, it helps folk stop living to model; just be. It can trigger "Aha!" moments that help limit release. Coming ahead of "8" and "9", it's the last dose of wisdom about path. With "3" as birth number pairing with this, life could propel you to clear out cobwebs. "7", you see, is about head stuff: opinions, thoughts, rigidity. Egoic self, in all of us, limits flow by over-projecting.

"7" guides self out of overly staring. As this occurs, we're led back to breath. Acceptance of life is a realm which gives fully; supports, nurtures, facilitates. "7" denotes "time to be informed" which needs us positioned to receive. Even here, you may sense rhythms around relaxing and allowing fresh flow in. "7" is "learn" no matter viewpoint. Even at the summit, self can fathom more. There's always new stuff to sense and channel. This vibe, like others, wants us in the moment; channelling wisdom; releasing scripts; presence; intuitive life; space to receive, not just know and think. It can, therefore, flag where we might be getting stuck. It also highlights quality downtime as key to accessing scope. Letting go on the energetic level moves all sorts of stuckness.

By remembering and practising these things, self helps life flow optimally. We all know and sense what's possible. Do we, however, let that in? That needn't be a monoform picture. We're not here to follow exact same path. Life is uniqueness, difference, freshness. Where can you allow/encourage more of that? This month's generic M.O. is "25", visiting every "March". This points to a heightening "2" and "5" dynamics (above). New perspectives are likely this month at levels or in ways that seem louder or better than usual. Do what you can to welcome such wavelengths. Break and eat well. Let more of the whole view in.

We're here to genuinely partner with life. That involves learning to receive well. "March" could reveal more things about self care; how that affects your world. "117/9" could see truth emerging; bigger picture views informing self. Double "1" flags the building of resilience; the need to stand up for "me" at all times. Spiritually lived, that isn't exclusive. "1" supports all genuine needs. Such states can thrive because we're all different. Only when egoic self is driving do we witness rudeness and unfairness. There's more than enough but mind-full "I" doesn't know that constantly. Here is where this month's twelve "2"s might help us learn via relativities. Child-ish "me" always looks outward; forgetting how much it has. This can result in neediness, oppression, greediness, insecurity. We can all channel this - it's part of being human – which is why time out matters. Limited “1” is mentored via breath; consciously choosing to rebalance and let go. This helps lower-level vibrations and agendas clear. Know you are loved, supported, etc – even if others don't reflect that.

clearings, healings & meditations over video or phone

... not to mention readings and other forms of energy work. Life can present in ways that stun, often just as we need to stay grounded. Via phone, video or email, I tune in to help you understand and clear. Sessions are recorded so that you can revisit the guidance you're given.

“March”'s reality numbers are “28/1” and “2142/9”

resilience and awareness of self and life are on the cards

The reality number denotes the end states we will attract and manifest, by end of phase, by embracing what the birth number and M.O. offer as learning curves. This “March” carries “1” and “9” both of which are outlined above. “28” speaks of lessons in how we place self and let it be. You may recall, from previous months, that “2” also flags indoctrination. As a phase, it can trigger more induction, coaching, mentoring. This is interesting given the end vibes – “1” and “9” could steer selves to close off dodgy schemes. Models, rules and customs abound. Where are you being hampered by these? Mentioned before, upward and sideways influence can also get loud(-er) as need or dynamic when “2”'s feature. “28” suggests we're all going to notice where current training guides are in need of update. Politics and socialisation are an inherent part of such things. This “March” could help you sense how to improve and help your self (and others!) break free. “1” is the end point of “28” – leadership, adult, self backing its path. All in all, then, we could sense excuses to improve recipes and help outcomes get more right.

“2142” reinforces rebirth of system and approach because the “4” it contains. That likes to enhance frameworks and systems in mind, habit, process. At home or at work, you might see things evolving; maybe just sense how to enhance. “4” wants self using the best of input. It can, therefore, help lenses adjust in really value-adding ways. “4” also flags the strategist at work; whether we are birthing the best long-term. Source, life, has time in its corner. It's happy to wait 'til we “get” what we need to. This is how this month's reality numbers could reinforce the “7” energies. “Getting wise to life” is part of success. We don't use the right spanner 'til we've learned a thing or two. Every person has and is a kit that's unique. “4”, like “7”, breeds awareness for what we're each here to be, do, learn, share. The more we come out of robotic mindset, the more we let life in to show us how to get there.

So? Use this month to stretch your perspectives; clear out where needed; welcome newness in. This year, being “6”, is all about supporting no matter what challenge comes in. We don't need to stare at the goal posts too much. Doing so tends to ruin play. Be where you are. Know you are supported. Use breath to let Source guide you well in everything. Stances like these are highly mobile. Don't separate spiritual from rest of life. Allow divine vibes to be constantly with you and capable of helping everything all the time. Giving Source space to own its landscape often results in more guidance and help. Test these words. Don't ever believe just because someone else says.

What about your chart?

We each have a specific numerological profile that stems from our date of birth, full birth name and last birthday. I've outlined the collective rhythms for this month but have not talked about your personal chart. Readings that merge numbers with intuitive downloads can help you transition through all sorts of things. They're all about soul - linking to and channelling it more - and what can occur when we do this.
